

In the year 2050, the Earth's resources have long been depleted and life has been driven to extinction*. In an attempt to save the Earth, a team of explorers decides to dive into an illegal fishing vessel submerged by rising sea levels to hunt for remaining resources, only to discover that abject terror is awaiting them from beneath...

Lok Fu Place – The Ghost Ship

This Halloween, Lok Fu Place presents “The Ghost Ship”, Hong Kong’s one and only free festive event, which features the theme of environmental conservation. Lok Fu Place joins forces for the first time with “The Nature Conservancy” to raise awareness of environmental conservation, and to offer related information on site.

You are invited to join the search squad to raid the shipwreck vessel and fight against the odds in search of valuable resources!

Ghost Ship 潛航凶間

In the near future, humans have to bear the bitter fruit of their unscrupulous exploitation of natural resources. Visit the Food Court at Zone A, Lok Fu Place, where you will enlist in the search squad and dive into a shipwrecked vessel to collect valuable resources hidden in different compartments. Be warned, though, as each and every decision you make will determine your survival.

The hall of no return

Diving slowly into the flooded compartment, the squad members begin their perilous journey.

The chamber of massacre

In this haunting scene, remains of illegal fishing are scattered on the floor, while the blood-stained plastic bags hung overhead sway with hints of the gruesome content inside – are they remains of fish or humans?

And listen, the shrieking sound of a knife scrape echoes around the dark corner...

Ghost Ship 潛航凶間

The drawbridge of despair

Hanging on the brink of collapse, the broken drawbridge cracks with every stride. Down the sewage float a few creepy skull-resembling shapes, while an unknown creature stares voraciously, waiting underneath for its prey.

The nets of doom

The path ahead is a maze of fishing nets, on which myriad stinking remains of marine life and humans dangle by. Watch your step and avoid being entangled, or the evil spirits won't be forgiving.

The jungle of crude

It takes more than a bit of cautiousness to tread the jungle ground which sticks to your feet. And wait – who's there on the dead fish piles?

The bunker of miasma

The catch placed inside the trafficking containers has long decayed, leaving pools of blood everywhere. And soon you'll learn there's more than that in the revolting atmosphere...

The swarm of algae

Filled with algae and long grasses, the swarm may display a disarming charm. But take heed – terror might well be going after your Achilles heel, literally.

Ghost Ship 潛航凶間

The flight for life

You've fallen into the stomach of a huge monstrous fish – can you escape before it's too late?

Join the armed tactical squad in the afternoon session

We have added an afternoon session that takes place from 1pm to 4pm every Saturday, Sunday and Public Holidays. So come along with friends and family to annihilate the threats of the environment with laser guns in a blitzkrieg.
