The Link Together Initiatives

The Link Together Initiatives (The Initiatives) was established in January 2013 by The Link REIT (The Link) as its charity and community programme to support eligible charitable organisations in launching relevant service projects that advance sustainable development in the community. Unlike other charitable funds, the Initiatives has been designed such that The Link not only provides financial support to the awardees, but also engages the support of tenants and appoints staff to serve as Staff Sponsors to help with service delivery, showcasing The Link's commitment to working together with non-profit organisations to make the greatest contribution to the community.

Youth Outreach

Youth Outreach was founded in 1991 to provide crisis intervention services to marginal adolescents in Hong Kong. The organisation provides 24-hour services, including an all-night outreaching service with emergency accommodation and counselling to teenagers who have either already run away from home or are in danger of doing so. It also organises popular recreational activities for young people, including hip hop dancing, to encourage them to develop their own creative interests and enhance their self-confidence, self-esteem and self-image.

BBoy Focus

A renowned BBoy (a type of hip hop dancer) from Flow Mo Crew in Finland. He has been awarded in various international dancing competitions, including the Circle Kingz Champion and IBE Footwork Battle Champion, where he was a 3-time winner. He has also judged numerous international competitions, such as Outbreak World Finals and Battle of the Year World Finals.
