

Tasting Hong Kong

Date: 27 April 2017 (Thursday) to 14 May 2017 (Sunday)

Temple Mall, Link's flagship mall in Wong Tai Sin, is a stone's throw away from Wong Tai Sin Temple – one of Hong Kong's most iconic tourist attractions. The mall boasts a logo whose design features a stylised representation of the temple's Chinese lanterns, lending a traditional and cultural touch to the mall and its large-scale decorations. Enviably located at the hub of local and cross-border transportation with an entrance opening to the adjoining MTR station, Temple Mall is where convenience abounds.

Temple Mall underwent full-out refurbishments in 2015, followed by a tenant mix upgrade with the introduction of a rich array of new stores, in particular trendy fashion brands for the younger market and a variety of healthcare and personal care brands. The mall also houses Chinese, Western, Japanese, Korean, Thai and Shanghainese eateries, including the first Wong Tai Sin outlets of popular chains like MeokBang Korean BBQ & BAR, Shanghai Teng 1930 by Shanghai Po Po, Trusty Congee King (recommended by Michelin Guide for seven consecutive years), and local food stall classic 利豐打冷小廚. This wide range of dining options adds to the comprehensive one-stop shopping experience of Temple Mall, catering to every need of local and overseas visitors alike.

Where Delicacies and Architecture Converge

This April, Link combines two of the most quintessential features of Hong Kong – delicacies and landmark architecture to dress Temple Mall in an enticing vibe, offering customers a “taste of Hong Kong”. The event features a comprehensive selection of offers and experiences in three aspects — ‘eat’, ‘shop’ and ‘play’, taking locals and tourists on a creative journey where they soak up the gist of Hong Kong's unique charms. In addition, special Mother's Day offers will shower surprises and exquisite gifts on all moms on designated dates – Perfect for family visitors to pamper their beloved mom!
